The Wo Change Agent Award

(made possible by funding from the Wo Family Endowment and coordinated by the Wo Learning Champions)

Have you designed and/or introduced an innovation in teaching or service delivery within the past five years? The Wo Change Agent Award recognizes excellence and innovation in teaching or service delivery within the University of Hawai‘i Community Colleges. Faculty, staff, departments or programs that have introduced an innovation within the past five years are eligible to apply.

THE AWARD: A grant of up to $500 for future professional development.

WHO MAY APPLY: All faculty (including lecturers), clerical, APT, and custodial staff.

DEADLINE: Friday, February 14, 2014
The Wo Change Agent Award Application

APPLICANT INFORMATION:
Applicant Name: Email:
College: Phone Number:

* The application must include supporting documents that provide evidence for the effectiveness of the innovation. *

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT:

Describe how your project meets one or more of the following criteria:

Quality:
Participants agree that the innovation increases "quality" in the course, program, office, or institution. Evidence of quality may include participant surveys or letters of support from participants.

Outcomes:
Participants agree that the activity or program has had a positive impact on the institution and/or the community. There is evidence of the depth and/or breadth of the impact of the activity on participants.

Replication:
The activity or program selected can be replicated in other institutions with minimal difficulty.

Timeliness:
The activity or program should not be more than five years old in the institution, but it must have been around long enough to have been tested so that it meets most of the criteria.

E-mail complete application and supporting documents by the deadline to:
Louise Pagotto; pagotto@hawaii.edu