The Wo Community Building Award
(made possible by funding from the Wo Family Endowment and coordinated by the Wo Learning Champions)

Have you designed and/or introduced a new program or activity within the past five years designed to expand and enrich campus or community connections? Your previous project or activity may include advances you have made in improving campus communications, spirit, collaboration, or the campus community. Your activity may also have improved the college’s outreach to the community businesses, organizations, or schools.

The Wo Community Building Award recognizes new programs or activities that expand and enrich campus or community relations within the University of Hawai‘i Community Colleges and the larger community. Faculty, staff, departments or programs that have introduced a community building project within the past five years are eligible to apply.

THE AWARD: A grant of up to $500 for future professional development.

WHO MAY APPLY: All faculty (including lecturers), clerical, APT, and custodial staff.
DEADLINE: Friday, February 14, 2014
The Wo Community Building Award Application

APPLICANT INFORMATION:
Applicant Name: Email:
College: Phone Number:

* The application must include supporting documents that provide evidence for the effectiveness of the program/activity. *

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT:

Describe how your project meets one or more of the following criteria:

Quality:
Participants agree that the program or activity increases "quality" of the connections between the various components of the campus or between the campus and community. Evidence of quality may include participant surveys or letters of support from participants.

Outcomes:
Participants agree that the activity or program has had a positive impact on the institution and/or the community. There is evidence of the depth and/or breadth of the impact of the activity on participants.

Replication:
The activity or program selected can be replicated in other institutions with minimal difficulty.

Timeliness:
The activity or program should not be more than five years old in the institution, but it must have been around long enough to have been tested so that it meets most of the criteria.

E-mail complete application and supporting documents by the deadline to:
Louise Pagotto; pagotto@hawaii.edu